

Gian Battista Baccharini: Gian Battista Baccharini is the President of FIAIP, the Italian Federation of professional real estate agents. Graduated in Law at the University of Bologna, Gian Battista Baccharini is specialised in real estate contracts, in addition to being registered to the role of appraisers and experts in estimations and real estate valuations by the Chamber of Commerce of Ravenna. He is also the owner of a real estate agency.

Henning Ehrenstein: Henning Ehrenstein is the Deputy Head of the Unit for Business to Consumer Services in the Directorate-General of the Internal Market, Industry and SMEs at the European Commission. Prior to his long-standing career at the Commission, Mr Ehrenstein worked for Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer's law firm from 2005 to 2009. He graduated in Politics and Economics at the University of Edinburgh.

Kai Warnecke: Kai Warnecke is the President of Haus&Grund Deutschland, the Federal Association of German property owners, since 2016 and Vice President of UIPI. He joined Haus&Grund Deutschland in 2003: first as consultant and Head of Department, later as a Deputy Chief Executive Officer and finally as Chief Executive Officer in 2013. A graduate in Law at the University of Passau, the University of Glasgow and the University of Kiel, Mr Warnecke owns a PhD at the Humboldt University of Berlin.

Sergio Nasarre-Aznar: Sergio Nasarre-Aznar is Full Professor of Civil Law and Director of the UNESCO Housing Chair at the University Rovira i Virgili (Spain). He is European Doctor in Law and holds an M.Phil. in Land Economy of the University of Cambridge. Since 2008 he is a Corresponding Member of the Spanish Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation. He has been granted the ICREA Fellowship to the excellence of research 2016-2020. Consultant of the EU Commission, the Catalan Parliament and Government, Amnesty International, FAO and the Association of German Pfandbrief Banks. He has been Deputy Judge in the Court of Appeal of Tarragona for 15 years (2004-2018). He is the author of four books and has edited seven more. He has published more than 90 research works and has delivered over 160 invited speeches in 15 countries. He has taken part in drafting five laws related to housing. He is main researcher in ten national and international projects and has taken part in some projects of the EU Commission and the European Parliament about tenancies, evictions and homelessness, cross-border acquisition of land and collaborative economy.

COLLABORATIVE ECONOMY IN THE REAL ESTATE SECTOR: AN OPPORTUNITY FOR EUROPE?

Rome - FRIDAY 7 JUNE 2019 - 9 AM

Adrian's Temple - Rome Chamber of Commerce (Piazza di Pietra)

Giorgio Spaziani Testa: Giorgio Spaziani Testa is President of Confedilizia since 2015. Prior to his two terms as President, he was General Secretary of the same association. Trained in fiscal law, he has a strong expertise in real estate.

Stratos Paradias: Stratos Paradias is President of the International Union of Property Owners (UIPI) since 2005. Prior to that, he was UIPI General Secretary for four years. Mr Paradias is a Supreme Court Lawyer in Athens, specialised in Property Law. In 1983, he founded the Hellenic Property Federation (POMIDA) and has been its President since 1996. Mr Paradias was the introducer of several pieces of legislation on rentals and property in Greece, and he was also a member of different Greek State Committees.

Francesco Longo: Francesco Longo is Associate Professor of the Department of Policy Analysis and Public Management at Bocconi University. At SDA Bocconi, he is researcher at CERGAS, of which he was Director from 2006 to 2012. His areas of expertise include: Institutional organisation and governance of public sector; management of public networks; strategies for the public sector; design and evaluation of public policies.

Stian Wessel: Stian Wessel is President of Huseiernes Landsforbund, the Norwegian consumer association for property owners. He is a lawyer at Seland Orwall DA Law Firm and he deals to a large extent with tax and corporate law matters at both national and international level. He has assisted in a number of matters various industries' sectors, such as oil and gas, building and construction and property development. Mr Wessel owns a Master in Law from the University of Oslo.

Cristiano Dell'Oste: Cristiano Dell'Oste is a journalist at Il Sole 24 Ore, where he coordinates the Norms & Tributes sections of the Monday's weekly edition of the newspaper and the 'Expert answers' section. Mr Dell'Oste covers taxes, law and real estate, and has participated to numerous conferences organized by institutional operators. He graduated in Law at the University of Eastern Piedmont and in Journalism at the Ifg De Martino in Milan.

Michele Conti: Michele Conti is the Mayor of the city of Pisa, in Tuscany (Italy), since 2018. He started his political career in 1994 after being elected in the Municipal Council of his city, remaining in office until 2005. Following his studies in agronomy, he started his career in an experimental research center, and after being Director of the Agricultural Consortium of Pisa, he now leads the Tyrranean Consortium.

Carlos Villaro Lassen: Carlos Villaro Lassen is the Secretary General of the European Holiday Home Association. He works intensely in the holiday home industry to create a greater understanding among all private and public actors within the tourist industry. With a Master in Economics from the University of Copenhagen and with a background as Director of Communication at the Danish Chamber of Commerce his aim is to unify the industry internationally.

Matteo Frigerio: Matteo Frigerio is the Country Manager for Italy at Airbnb, where he is responsible for developing the national strategy. With a career focused on the tech industry, Mr Frigerio's work mainly deals with strengthening the collaborations between institutions and business partners to foster community growth and development in the Italian market.